MEMBERS NEWS

Welcome to the following new members who joined during the previous two months:

Thank you to the following members who made financial donations to the library over the previous two months:

Rae Anthony
Ivan Binns
Carol Booth
Richard Broome

Keith Dunstan
Lynda Laphorne
Janina Maciulis
Geoffrey Paterson

This year members have the option of renewing for two years instead of one. Taking up this option saves us time, saves you time and is good for the environment. Thanks to those members who have already chosen to do this in 2008.

GENERAL NEWS

Staff

This will be my last newsletter for a while as I will be taking maternity leave from mid-May and will be returning to work in February 2009. Judy Buckrich will be taking on some of my duties during that time, including organising the activities at the library and writing the newsletter. Thanks very much to all members who have given me their best wishes.
Christine Worthington

Cathy has returned from her long service leave. A new staff member, library student Ursula Zamecnik will soon begin work at the PMI on Saturdays.

Can you help?

We appreciate the patience of library users as various improvements have been made to the library. Soon more urgently needed shelving will be installed in the library to accommodate the rapidly growing collection. The installation of the new shelving will require moving some parts of the collection. If you are fit and have some time to spare to assist Tim with this task please call 9510 3393 or email tim@pmi.net.au and let us know.

Group visits

On 30 April Christine will speak at a Cinema &

Theatre Historical Society (CATHS) symposium on resources for cinema and theatre history.

Thanks very much to Tricia Baitz and the members of the Stonnington U3A who were very welcoming and attentive when Christine addressed the U3A's annual general meeting on 5 March.

Collection News

This year some money was set aside in our book budget specifically for family history items. See the Family History section of our Recent Acquisitions list in this newsletter to see which items might be of interest to you. Thanks very much to Alison Boundy of the committee for her input into selection of these items.

Our Australian literature section (820) has recently been undergoing reallocation of call numbers. The call numbers for these items now take into account the initial of the authors' names as well as the first three letters of the authors' surnames. For example, a book by Frank Hardy will now be found at 820 HAR.F instead of 820 HAR. Thanks to the book care volunteers for their hard work relabelling this section of the collection.

Volunteers

Sincere thanks to the PMI volunteer troops who, this year up to 31 March have notched up the following very impressive stats:

- ☺ 77 hours of book care duties
- ☺ 400 brochures delivered to households
- ☺ 6 publications indexed for the library, with a further 3 indexing projects underway
- ☺ 6 hours of newsletter mailout duties

These contributions have made an enormous difference to the library and collection and address some of the fundamental objectives of the library including informing the public of the library service, effective communication with members, and the growth, condition and usefulness of the collection.

2008 BOOK CLUB

In 2008 the Book club will again be held 10am-12pm on the first Saturdays of the winter months.

All books for the sessions are now in the library collection, and these items may be reserved free. Time to start reading!

Books and meeting dates are as follows:

- 7 Jun: Madonnas of Leningrad / Debra Dean
- 5 Jul: Carpentaria / Alexis Wright (Winner of the 2007 Miles Franklin Literary Award)
- 2 Aug: Luncheon of the Boating Party / Susan Vreelands

Participation in the Winter Book Club is free to PMI members and you can register now or any time up to 31st May.

Why not join us for a friendly interesting discussion over coffee?

PMI PRESS

This is the first local history especially dedicated to the Sydenham area and covers the early history, exploration, European settlement and pioneers.

A Butcher's Tale Launch

PMI members are invited to attend the launch of the latest PMI Press publication A Butcher's Tale by Bill Raymond. A Butcher's Tale is the very charming story of a young lad's start in life as an apprentice butcher at Prahran Market in the 1940s. Bill Raymond, now in his 80s, has over many years produced a beautifully written account of his time working for Duigan & Bartholomew, including many humorous stories of his colleagues and the daily life at the market.

The launch will be held at the PMI Library at 7.00pm on Wednesday 16 April. If you would like to attend please RSVP by 14 April by phone 9510 3393 or email library@pmi.net.au.
