PMI Victorian History Library Inc.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Library Membership

By signing my library card I agree to the following membership terms and conditions

1. Accept responsibility for all items borrowed.
2. Pay replacement and processing costs for any items lost, destroyed or damaged while on loan, apart from damage by reasonable wear and tear.
3. Notify the library immediately if your library card is lost or stolen.
4. Return items on or before the due date or check whether the item can be renewed.
5. Respect the rights and security of staff and other library users.
6. Notify the library of any change in your personal details, such as name and/or address.
7. Receive the PMI Library newsletter with updates on upcoming events, Library news and new additions to the collection as part of my membership.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people should be aware that items in the PMI's collection may contain images, videos or names of deceased persons.

Additionally, some material in the collection contains terms that reflect authors' views, or those of the period in which the item was written, but may not be considered appropriate today. These views are not the views of the PMI Victorian History Library Inc. This material is presented as part of the record of the past; contemporary users should interpret the work within that context.

If you find material in the PMI Collection which is considered sacred and should have restricted use, please see staff and the matter will be dealt with on case by case basis.
